Southern Chester County Chamber of Commerce Welcomes Victory Brewing Company Back to Kennett Square

November 15, 2022-Kennett Square, PA . . . The Southern Chester County Chamber of Commerce was proud to partner with Victory Brewing Company, Kennett Square for their Ribbon Cutting and Grand Re-Opening. Many members & friends were on site to raise a glass and celebrate a brewery that was truly missed by the community.

Victory Brewing Company officially reopened their doors on November 1, 2022. The team has worked hard to safely rebuild the space with updated interiors and fresh murals, since the explosive fire devastated the building in January of 2021. The community has eagerly awaited the restoration of this popular meeting place. At Victory Brewing Company-Kennett Square, you can expect the same award-winning Victory beers you have come to know and love, plus craft cocktails from Southern Tier Distilling Company. Guests can also enjoy a full, from-scratch food menu featuring local ingredients. Onward to Victory!

“We are proud to welcome Victory Brewing Company back to Southern Chester County”, said Cheryl Kuhn, the Chamber’s President & CEO. “The Brewery was truly missed, and, now that they’re back, we look forward to working together for their success!”

About Victory Brewing Company-Kennett Square

The Kennett Square Brewery features a 7-barrel brewhouse and produces unique beers that are available only in the on-site taproom. It was the first brewery to open in Kennett Square, PA since prohibition. This small brewery was designed, built, and installed by Victory's own brewers. Currently Kennett Square is the only location to feature an open fermenter. Glass walls separate the brewhouse from the taproom, allowing visitors to see the vessels and the brewers at work.

Since then, Victory has increased the size of the restaurant to 300 seats. The brewery has also expanded, producing 125,713 barrels of beer in 2014. As loyal craft beer drinkers continue to show their dedication to flavorful, quality beer, Victory plans to continue its own growth.
