SCCCC Recognizes Outstanding Service at Annual Breakfast

Kennett Square, PA – The Southern Chester County Chamber of Commerce kicked off a busy 2017 at its Annual Meeting Breakfast during which the Chamber introduced its 2017 Board of Directors, shared its strategic initiatives for the year, and recognized outstanding service to the Chamber by its members. More than 100 people attended the event held February 15 at Hartefeld National Golf Club.

David Tate of Diamond Financial Services and Barbara Bolton of Pegasus Technology were awarded “Closers of the Year” for their work in bringing new members to the Chamber. Vanessa Ross of International Flooring Brandywine Valley was awarded Volunteer of the Year and Aaron Minor of UFinancial Services was named Ambassador of the Year.

“We are grateful for our many members who give so much time and energy to our Chamber,” said Cheryl Kuhn, President of SCCCC. Their passion and commitment helps our Chamber to thrive and to continue to be an invaluable resource for the business community of southern Chester County.”
